SUMMER 2017

Frogbridge Fun Facts

JR's actual Birthday is July 27th, however every year we have JR's Birthday Bash on the calendar. This birthday Bash doesn't only celebrate JR's birthday, it celebrates the birthdays of every camper and Team Members in camp! We have 2 words for all of you..."HOPPY BIRTHDAY!" We hope you all enjoy our cake!

What's Gonna Hoppen Week 5:

- * Monday - Disney Dash!
- * Tuesday—JR's Birthday Bash!
- * Wednesday—Nerd Day!
- * Thursday—The Pirate Empire & Wacky Water Day!
- * Friday—Wild N Wacky Challenge!

SHINING STARS!!!

It is hard to believe that we started camp just four short weeks ago! The friendships we have already made, the memories we are still making every day and the fun we are having every minute simply can't be stopped! It seems like everyday is better than the next. From flag raising at assembly, to all of our exciting activities, and from Sweet Caroline and our conga line to our incredible special events, we know that there is no place else we would rather spend our summer. We just wish we could slow down time just a little!

Week 4 is always a special week at camp because we share it with all of you. From Day 1 of camp, our Team Members start practicing talent shows songs and dances with their campers. They work on their routines and before you know it, it's show time and they get to perform for all of you! The singing, the dancing and even the gymnastics, Frogbridge Campers proved to be superstars this week! We are so proud of all our campers for doing such a great job! Before you know it you will all be headed to Broadway! Keep up the good work!

While our campers were hard at work at Talent Shows...we had a little trick up our sleeves. After everyone went home on Thursday, Frogbridge was turned into a gold mine and gold stones were hidden all over camp! During the Gold Rush on Friday groups had to collect the gold, bid for clues so they can find their lost assistant counselors that were taken captive by the blue bandits and then solve a word scramble, cracking the code to victory! To everyone's surprise, the code they cracked spelled, "It's Color War!" Most shocking of all, just then the green and gold color war flags came running into the center of assembly....and the announcement we have waited for all year was about to happen.....Color War was about to begin! Or so we thought! As the campers and team members were screaming and celebrating, JR began the announcement...."Ladies and Gentlemen...IT IS....NOT TIME FOR COLOR WAR!" Ugh, it was a fake out, not a break out, and JR and Jenni definitely fooled us this time! Sorry guys, but you will just have to wait a little longer! A special shoutout to Jeannie from HSG for putting this adventure game involving team work together! A "frogabolous" time was had by everyone!

As we say goodbye to our first four week campers today, enjoy the rest of your summer and have a great school year ahead. We hope to see you back home at Frogbridge next summer! For everyone else have a great weekend and rest up because we have lots more in store for next week! Wacky Water Day, the Tadpole and Intermediate Campers Pirate Adventure, and the Wild n Wacky Challenge highlight week 5! And with today's fake break... we just don't know when the real one will happen! See you on Monday!

CIT News!

Wow! Our CITs did an amazing job in their 1st group placements. While they are sad to be leaving their groups, they are very eager to meet the campers in their new assignments. Congrats to our CIT's of the week! Wear your blue shirts proudly! You are on your way to becoming assistant counselors this summer!

ASK YOUR CAMPERS

What their favorite camp lunch is?

(We are going to guess and say chicken fingers!)

SHOUT OUTS

Tadpole campers had such a great time at our First Annual Gold Rush!! It was a blast looking for gold, finding our assistant counselors and unscrambling the clues! This all led to a fake color war break out!! What a great morning we all had!

A shout out goes to TP1 for winning our crazy hat wear it contest this week!

Wow!!! We are halfway through our 8 weeks at Frogbridge and the fun continues. Intermediate camp was dancing the week away at their talent show. They were so entertaining and enjoyed every minute on that stage. We had the pleasure of celebrating some birthdays this week, including Samantha P in IG1 and Brayden in IB1. We were able to end week 4 with a Gold rush! The campers had so much fun looking for "gold" and rescuing their counselors from the bandits. We can only imagine the fun and excitement that's ahead in week 5!

CONGRATULATIONS on the amazing job all the junior boys and girls did at the annual talent show! You all were incredible!!

Junior camp aced the rush for gold, they are the best- truth be told!!!!

MG6 and MB4 won our Special Event - Star Wars Ball

MG5 won this week's Wear It

MB3 won our Who Wears This... game

Our second Gaga Semifinal took place on Thursday and we're sending 4 more boys and 4 more girls to the Finals!

Our teen travel campers are having an amazing time on all their adventures, and this week was no exception. They traveled to Baltimore and Virginia on a two-night overnight! They spent one day in the Baltimore Harbor visiting the aquarium and Camden Yards (they were even on tv)! Their travels continued on Wednesday when they spent the day in Busch Gardens.

SCORE campers also had a blast! They bounced the day away at Skyzone on Wednesday and were joined by the CITs to cheer on their knight at Medieval Times!

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Wacky Water Day has been rescheduled for Thursday, July 27th! We can't wait to share this Wild and Wacky Water adventure with our campers! Let's hope the rain holds out this time!

ACTIVITY OF THE WEEK

The Octagon could quit possibly be our campers favorite activity! They love playing gaga and trying for a chance to be in the semi finals. We had several campers this week move on to the final round. Stay tuned for the results Week 8!
