Travel Campers
Conduct Agreement

The following are a list of rules that the camper is responsible to adhere to on all trips:

1. All camp rules and procedures are to be adhered to at all times. If you are unsure of anything, just ask. Any behavior problems could result in you being suspended from a trip and/or removed from your travel program.
2. Respect the authority of all team members. Your teachers and counselors are your chaperones while you are away from home and you need to follow all of their directions at all times.
3. Never go off on your own, you are to be with a teacher or counselor at all times.
4. Curfew is to be strictly adhered to at all times. Safety is our primary concern and you must take responsibility to be in your room at the designated times. (Teen Travel & C.I.T. campers only).
5. Respect all employees at the places we visit and always use good manners.
6. Treat everything with care. If you break it, you are now responsible to replace it. Your parents are responsible for any damages you cause to hotel rooms, buses, etc.
7. Be aware of the schedule for the day and be responsible to be on time with all items necessary (camp shirt, overnight bag, etc.)
8. Shoplifting, the use or possession of tobacco, drugs or alcohol, and/or inappropriate sexual behavior will be grounds for immediate dismissal from camp.
9. Fighting, or any form of abuse, will not be tolerated and will be grounds for immediate dismissal from camp.
