SUMMER 2019

Frogbridge Fun Facts

Are all of our parents excited to be campers for a night? Our annual Parent BBQ is next week on Thursday August 8th, 2019! We hope you will all join us for a fabulous BBQ dinner and take part in many of the activities Frogbridge Day Camp has to offer! Take a dip in the pool, a boat ride around the lake, zip across the lake on the zipline or even take part in our Parent Basketball Game! We hope you will join in on the fun! Can't wait to see you all there!

What's Gonna Hoppen Week 6:

- * Monday—Weird Riddles and other Jumbles!
- * Tuesday—JR's Birthday Bash!
- * Wednesday—Back to the 80's Wear It Day!
- * Thursday—Parent BBQ 5:30PM—8PM!
- * Friday—The Mentalist,

Hee Haw! Frogbridge Fun!

The excitement just keeps getting bigger and better here at Camp! Week 5 was full of fun, laughter and so many happy campers! We started new league teams, participated in our favorite activities and had a blast swimming and playing in the pool!

We kicked off week 5 with a little math challenge called the Rodeo Roundup at assembly! Although campers are not ready to go back to school just yet, we found the timing just right to pick their brains for a bit! Even during the summer, your math wizards worked hard at solving the different rounding equations! Such a great way to catch up with our math facts!

On Tuesday, Maggie and her Game of Games Challenge had groups competing against each other in different events! They included Running Trivia, Hot Hands, also know as Name That Celebrity, and Flash Trivia! Their favorite event was Blindfolded Musical Cones where their eyes were covered with bandanas and they had to crawl around to find mini cones through out the floor! The groups were all cheering for each other to try and collect the most cones! The pictures are sure funny to look at!

The word of the day on Wednesday was Howdy...as we were all dressed up for Wild West Day! Flannel shirts, jean shorts and cowboy boots were worn by many, as our Frogbridge Campers were ready to lasso up for their day of fun. The best part was that our Tadpole and Intermediate Campers were dressed up and ready to go for their pony rides! Hee-Haw!

On Thursday we had many furry friends join us at camp for our annual petting zoo. Campers loved brushing the alpacas, playing with the rabbits and chickens and even feeding a baby cow! Meant for our youngest campers, anyone that was here on Thursday was able to stop over for a short visit with the animals! We all had such a great time!

At Friday's Boot Camp Challenge campers and team members were certain that Color War was going to break sometime during the day. To everyone's surprise, they waited all day and then realized they will just have to wait a little longer (at least until Monday)! Boot Camp was such a blast as campers and team members competed in different boot camp challenges. There were huge tires and different obstacles to complete. All the winners at the end were able to pick someone from the crowd that they wanted to mud-pie in the face. Their chocolate mud faces were priceless!

Week 5 is not over just yet. We hope you are all planning to join us tonight as we enjoy all of the rides (for free!) at Iplay America. Harry J will be there for all of your photo ops. Make sure to tag us on Instagram and Facebook.

Have an amazing weekend and rest up. Week 6 will be here before we know it and boy do we have a lot more in store for you next week! JR's birthday bash with birthday cake for everyone, our brand new 80's wear it day, a visit from the Mentalist, Robert Channing, and best of all, our annual Parent BBQ on Thursday night! See you all on Monday!
