

What's Hopping???

SUMMER 2021

Frogbridge Fun Facts

The Battle At The Bridge

Did You Know???

Harrison the General from Green Justice League and Eric the General from the Gold Avengers met at Camp 15 years ago when they were Junior Campers. They had been in the same group all the way through Teen Travel and CIT, and have been best friends since they were 6 years old. Even though they go to different colleges they talk to each other every day and count down the days to be back home at Frogbridge! It is so true that camp friends really make the best friends.

What's Gonna Hoppen Week 7:

- * Monday—86 Acre Relay!
- * Tuesday—Color War Finale!
- * Wednesday—Star Wars Day!
- * Thursday—Lower Camp Petting Zoo!
- * Friday—Camp Carnival!

The week we have been waiting for FINALLY happened after 2 years. The Battle at the Bridge made it's 2021 debut at Frogbridge. The campers were chanting, the team members were singing and everyone was ready for the games to begin, but first we had to kick off week 6 and build up the anticipation for the longest awaited Color War break in Frogbridge history.

Week 6 started with campers matching their favorite candies at assembly with all the goodies they contain. And then to add to all the sweetness, we celebrated JR's birthday Bash with a whole lot of birthday cake for everyone. We hope everyone that does not celebrate a summer birthday had a very HOPPY Birthday at camp!

Frogtober in August is always a fun wear it day, but this year it was even better. We all came dressed to camp on Wednesday in our favorite Halloween costumes. There were unicorns and hot dogs, superheroes and dalmations, and even the 7 Dwarfs. Our annual Halloween parade started at morning assembly and our Tadpole and Intermediate Campers joined in the fun by trick-or-treating on the soccer field. JR started the costume contest at assembly and brought a few of the finalists into the center....All of a sudden the microphone stopped working, and Batman and Captain America invaded the contest to try and win for best costume. Just then, there went the Color War music. JR's mic magically started working again and his famous "Ladies and Gentleman, Boys and Girls, The Time is Now" came over the loudspeakers. After 2 long years and 6 weeks of waiting, Color war 2021 finally kicked off. The Gold Avengers led by General Eric and Lieutenants Cori, Ben and Gabby will go up against the Green Justice League led by General Harrison and Lieutenants Arielle, RJ and Vaughn, and boy were they ready for the group challenges, and sportsmanship with the campers for the next 4 days!

With all the excitement we still had a show to get to at the basketball court as none other than The Harlem Wizards were here to show us their fancy bball skills and dunking magic! Although we couldn't play against them this summer, we all had a blast and the crowd was going wild!

The green and gold that filled assembly on Thursday morning proved how much the campers missed the Color War games. Campers are so happy to participate in activities to earn points for their teams! The positive sportsmanship points can be felt all over camp as each team is cheering the other on! We were so proud of all our team members and campers at our annual tug-o-war challenge which the staff participate in. A special shout out to our lifeguards for not letting go of the rope after what felt like an hour. You guys were incredible! The annual bucket dump is back at the end of the day, and each leader will take a turn to go under the bucket to see who is in the lead for the day! The team in the lead gets confetti and the team that is trailing behind gets a not so fun surprise!

Have a great weekend and we will see you back here to continue the battle at the bridge for week 7 which will feature the 86 acre relay and sing competitions which are worth a lot of points! So Gold's lead of only 177 points might be easily passed by Green in the blink of an eye! See you all Monday

SUMMER 21 SHOUTOUTS

The Tadpoles had the best first day of Color War! They enjoyed some of the activities such as the Bean Bag Toss and Beach Ball Relay!

The Intermediate group had a blast participating in the Olympic Games and the Kid Car Races.

Junior Campers couldn't help but to scream with excitement when they found out that color war was FINALLY here!

MG3 raised the flag on Monday

MG4 won our Halloween wear it.

SG2 raised the flag proudly at our Tuesday's morning assembly.
