SUMMER 2023

Frogbridge Fun Facts

The 86 acre relay is one of the most highly anticipated Color War events. It is 2.17 miles long, starting at the front of the property on Yellow Meeting House Road with the generals running into the camp kicking off the race. Each team has a colored bandanna that they pass from activity to activity through all 86 acres of the property. Each activity has different campers and team members completing their part. At the finish line the generals and lieutenants have to put together a colored puzzle, unlock a combination Color War at camp happens one week of the summer, but it's something campers and team members talk about all year long. They stare at the camp calendar in June and look for little clues of how and when it will break and who the generals and lieutenants will be! After last week's surprise Fake-Out Breakout we were more than ready for the games to begin on Monday! Looking out at assembly all you saw was a whole lot of green and gold, with cowboy hats and inflatable guitars! Gold Country and Green Rock-n-Roll leaders had songs ready to be learned and the competition was heating up!

Campers and team members were chanting all over camp, sportsmanship points were being awarded and sports games were being played! Everyone was searching all over camp for the hidden Color War rings, and our Tadpole Campers had their own little ring find of their own! The Color War flags were flying at assembly, and our Team Member events had everyone wanting to join in on the fun! Green Rock-N-Roll had a clean sweep in the tug-o-war and then again in the Frogbridge Famous food eating contest! A close competition till the end, both Generals

Jake and Arielle were covered in cherrypie, but it was Jake that took the last bite awarding the points to the green team! One of the most exciting parts of Color War is our annual bucket dump! Each day at assembly our Color War leaders stand under two very different filled buckets. The winning team for the day gets water and the team trailing gets a not so pretty mixture of lets just say something you wouldn't want poured on you!

As an added bonus this year, our Campers Helping Kids Campaign kicked off during The Battle at the Bridge! Raising money for Brady's Voice, one of our former Camp families that certainly needs our help! Any donations brought in by campers were awarded as points for their teams! We are almost at our goal so keep the donations coming!

The closest Color War games in history had to come to a halt on Thursday, when Wacky Water Day was rescheduled! The water inflatables, water tag and Corcl boats in the pool had us all splash-splashing around all day! Campers even got a try to put their favorite team members in the dunk tank! And to add to the day's excitement our Tadpole and Intermediate campers had the Lucky Duck puppet show in HSG! They had a blast singing and interacting with all the puppets!

Back at camp on Friday, the annual 86 acre started our morning! With every camper playing a part in the longest Color War race in the world, General Arielle and General Jake started the race on Yellow Meeting House Roads, and every activity along with every camper, raced through the camp to the finish line. In the end it was the Green Rock-n-Roll who had the correct combo to unlock the Green team balloons winning the race! Great job everyone! As the teams marched to HSG for the Color War finale you could feel the excitement! Both teams presented their song books, plaques and fight songs! As the gold team started to sing their alma mater, green stood up with them and together both teams created one song and sang it side by side as a surprise for JR. The tears from JR and the administration team shows just what an incredible place this is. After the closest race in Frogbridge history (just 95 points between both teams), Green Rock-n-Roll was declared this year's color war champs. The green confetti was flying through Harrison Square Garden and just like that we all became one team again! We can't thank you all enough for not just participating, but for your energy, enthusiasm and most importantly sportsmanship, in this years games.

It is hard to believe when we come back here on Monday we will kick off Week 7. We hope you will all join us in all the fun on Thursday at our annual parent night barbeque and carnival! The pool and outdoor activities will be open and the BBQ tent will have tons of food. Have a great weekend everyone and we will see you all next week.
